A.F Architectural Designs
Turning your vision into reality

A.F Architectural Designs are based in the North West England.

We specialise in offering planning, design and consultancy services to home owners looking to extend or convert their existing property.

Whether you are simply adding a porch to the front of your house, converting your existing space or adding an extension – we can help by offering cost-effective practical solutions.

Based on your initial thoughts we will advise how to achieve the most potential from your proposed building works.

We can also provide your drawings in 3D should you require.

Call us to discuss any requirements on: 07980 799827
